

Premier Travel (N.I.) Ltd Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out what information we collect from you, and how it is used.

Please note that any personal information provided by you will be processed by us, and/or our relevant suppliers, in compliance with the current data protection regulations (GDPR), for the purpose of providing travel services and reservations.

In order to process your travel arrangements, we will require personal information such as your name, address, telephone number(s), date of birth, passport details, payment details, any special needs or requirements, pre-existing medical conditions, and any other relevant personal information required to enable us to facilitate your booking.

We take full responsibility for ensuring that proper security measures are in place to protect your personal data. We may need to send this data to third parties such as tour operators, airlines, hotels, transport companies, cruise companies, etc. to fulfil the requirements of your reservation with the third party. We may have to send your details to public authorities, such as customs and immigration authorities, if required to permit you to enter the country you are travelling to, or through.

We will NOT use your information for any purpose other than processing your booking or communicating with you.

For the purpose of the General Data Protection Regulation, your data controller is:
